The Nashville Alzheimer's Golf Classic Benefits The Pat Summitt Foundation

June 6, 2017, Knoxville, Tenn. – Representatives of The Pat Summitt Foundation expressed their appreciation to a group of Nashville business people for choosing Summitt's Foundation for the sixth consecutive year to receive the proceeds of their Alzheimer's Golf Classic. The 2017 tournament was held on Monday, June 5th at The Governors Club in Brentwood and raised more than $100,000 for The Foundation from the Patron's Dinner, silent and live auction, sponsorships and the 34 teams that participated. The event was made possible by the following sponsors: National HealthCare Corporation (NHC), The Morehead Family Susan Noakes, Shaub Construction, Capital Wealth Advisors, and a host of sponsored teams and tee box sponsors.

Event organizer, Mike Estes, with Capital Wealth Advisors noted, "One of Pat's most famous quotes was, 'You win in life with people,' and she was right. I am blessed to be surrounded by the best of friends and golf patrons for this year's event! It's time that we take Alzheimer's disease head on and finish exactly the way she would want us to!"

"We are grateful and honored to be part of this exceptional, one-of-a-kind tournament," said Patrick Wade, Executive Director of The Pat Summitt Foundation, "Mike and Adina Estes, the sponsors, and the golfers have made an amazing impact in our fight against Alzheimer's disease over the last 6 years and we can't thank them enough."
